LET'S ROLL UP THOSE SLEEVES—and "Finish the Job" in the fight against polio. With that thought in mind, Burgess Hal H. Harris and Jesse R. S. Flory yesterday signed a proclamation marking today and Saturday as "Blue Crutch Days" in the polio and March of Dimes fight. With Harris and Flory here are Lucille Ackerman, VFW Auxiliary and Forrest Haney, VFW post commander. In foreground are Woody Heller and Sahn Miah, both polio victims whose recovery has been helped by "The March."

Fires Claim Score Of Lives Across Nation

By The Associated Press

FIRES ACROSS the nation Thursday claimed more than a score of lives and resulted in more than a million dollars in property damage.

A blaze in Jeffersonville, Ga., wiped out a family of six. A family of five perished at Marshall, Mo. A woman and five children died in Temple, Pa.

A father and his daughter died of burns at Bettendorf, Iowa, and two small children succumbed at Birmingham, Ala.

Carbon monoxide fumes from a gas heater also took the lives of three persons in one family in Columbus, Ohio.

Five shops in a 16-store shopping center were destroyed in a pre-dawn blaze at Rome, N.Y. The owner of one store said his loss alone would total about $250,000. The over-all loss was not estimated.

Loss was set at $250,000 in another fire in New York State. A cardboard box factory burned at Kingston.

A dozen guests dashed into frigid weather to escape as flames swept a 140-year-old hotel at Utica, N.Y. Damage was estimated unofficially at $75,000.

A hotel and four stores went up in flames in Tupper Lake, N.Y., an Adirondack mountain village. No one was reported injured.

Flames ruined a three-story brick annex of the Wesley Methodist church at Perth Amboy, N.J. Firemen said the fire was caused either by Christmas tree lighting or defective wiring in a wall. No estimate was made of damage.

Fire burned out the interior of a restaurant, a photo shop and a law office in Freeport, Ill. Damage was estimated at more than $100,000.

Victims

The victims in the Jeffersonville, Ga., fire were Lucius Ringwood, his wife, Bertha, both about 40, and their four children.

Those killed at Marshall, Mo., were Orville Swisher, 36; his wife, 34, their daughter and two sons.

The Temple, Pa., fire swept through a one-story, tarpaper-covered house in which five families had taken shelter for the night. It apparently was started by a leaky kerosene stove. A number of the occupants escaped.

The victims were identified as: Mrs. Esther Rothermel, 48, a niece, Donna Rothermel, 4; her brother, Eddie, 2, of Fleetwood, Pa.; second niece, Carol Ann Fromm, 4, of Reading, R.D. 2, and two grandchildren, Jimmy Brobst, 1, and his sister, Peggy, 3, of Kutztown, R.D.

Frank Curiel, 41, his daughter, Frances, 15, died of burns after they fled the Bettendorf, Iowa, blaze which started when an oil heater exploded.

At Birmingham, Ala., Jocelyn Neschell Mitchell, 3 months, and Herbert Lee Julian, 3 years, were burned to death when fire swept their four-room apartment. Their mother, Jocelyn Brown Julian, 23, found the apartment in flames when she returned from a grocery. The blaze apparently started from a hot water heater.

McGRIE AIR FORCE BASE, N. J., Jan. 3 (AP)—The Air Force will finish today to a report of the condition of all banks under its jurisdiction at the close of business, Monday, Dec. 31. The report must be published.

Call Made On Banks

HARRISBURG, Jan. 3 (AP)—The State Banking Department today issued a call for a report of the condition of all banks under its jurisdiction at the close of business, Monday, Dec. 31. The report must be published.

Good Morning!

She: "Lovingmaking is just the same as in ancient times."
He: "How do you know?"
She: "I've been reading about a Greek maiden who sat and listened to a lyre all night."

Postal Rate Studies Underway

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 (AP)—A proposal to raise the postage rate on letters to five cents is under consideration by the Post Office Department.

The department said Postmaster General Summerfield has approached members of Congress on the idea.

The last plane, a hospital evacuation transport, landed here at 3:30 p.m. shortly after Lt. Gen. Joseph Smith, Military Air Transport Service Commander, announced the end of Operation Safe Haven.

Aboard were 35 Hungarians including nine litter cases. Five of these are expectant mothers. The plane was not the last to leave Europe but was delayed by snow in Newfoundland.

Requests Statement

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 (AP)—The comptroller of the currency today issued a call for a statement of the condition of all national banks at the close of business, Monday, Dec. 31.

Tension Shows As Congress Convenes

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 (AP)—A new Congress that faces forbidding foreign policy problems and a touchy civil rights issue opened for business today. Democrats took control after a dramatic moment of Senate uncertainty.

And behind a facade of the customary good will and harmony of opening day, touches of tension were apparent over the grave question of granting President Eisenhower's request for power to send American troops into action against any Communist aggression in the Mideast.

Out of the first round of activity of the 85th Congress came a decision that on Saturday the President will come to Capitol Hill in person to deliver a special message and urge his Middle Eastern policy on a joint session of Senate and House.

Seven Hours

First, the Senate is going to put in a solid seven hours tomorrow leading up to a climactic vote at 6 p.m. EST.

The result will determine how far a band of Northern and Western senators of both parties will get in rewriting the rules and curtailing the filibuster—a device to convert lung power into legislative power which Southerners have used with deadly effect against civil rights legislation.

Even members of the coalition conceded it was a pretty futile fight. In the lineup against them were the rival party leaders of Johnson of Texas and Republican William Knowland of California.

Johnson and Knowland were tapped to keep their leadership posts at routine party caucuses during the morning.

Then, promptly at noon, gavels cracked down in Senate and House and rapped the new Congress into session. It was all harmony and gayety as members took their oaths of office before applauding, packed galleries, or went out of their way to shake hands with political enemies as well as friends.

But inevitably and quickly, at least some of the harmony will give way to discord.

Some members of both parties already are gunning for Eisenhower's proposal to fight if need be to rescue the Middle East against Communist attack. Yet the chief executive is expected to get just about what he wants in the way of foreign policy support as the session of Congress winds into the summer.

Clark Takes Office In Senate

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 (AP)—Sen. Clark (D-Pa.) and 30 Pennsylvania House members took office today in solemn ceremonies and then welcomed hosts of their home state friends at gay receptions.

Clark, wearing a dark gray suit and subdued gray striped tie, was escorted to the rostrum of the Senate by Sen. Martin (R-Pa.). Vice President Richard Nixon administered the oath of office.

Then followed a massive reception in the Senate Office Building with Adlai Stevenson, Democratic presidential candidate in 1952 and 1956, and Pennsylvania's Gov. Leader heading the long list of persons offering their congratulations to the new senator.

Other Two

The paralysis in nearly half the Canadian railway system had its hardest impact on the many communities where CPR is the main transport connection with the outside world. Northwest of Sudbury in northern Ontario, at least 11 towns depend upon CPR as a life-line for survival in the snow and subzero cold.

Truckers' and automotive associations said they were ready for a "major transport emergency" service to isolated communities and the railroad said it could supply some fuel from its stocks to hospitals and schools if necessary.

The other two are Rep. Curtin, 8th District, succeeding Rep. King, who retired, and Mrs. Kathryn Granahan, 2nd District, who succeeds her late husband, Rep. William T. Granahan, of West Philadelphia.

Mrs. Granahan, a native of Easton, Pa., who attended Chestnut Hill College in Philadelphia, is the only woman in Pennsylvania's congressional delegation which now includes 17 Republicans and 13 Democrats. This is a net gain of one for the Republicans over the 84th Congress.

The other two are Rep. Curtin,

8th District, succeeding Rep. King, who retired, and Mrs. Kathryn Granahan, 2nd District, who succeeds her late husband, Rep. William T. Granahan, of West Philadelphia.

HANNIBAL, Mo., Jan. 3 (AP)—A man was cut in half just below the waist today and amazed physicians by living for more than five hours, fully conscious, and able to talk rationally until anesthetic was administered for surgery.

"I never heard of such a thing," said Dr. J. W. Well, the attending physician at St. Elizabeth's Hospital. "Neither had any of the other doctors who came in to look at him. Most people injure in that way are dead when you see them."

John Bobbitt, 46, a resident of Marion County said Bobbitt told

Warrants Issued For 11 Arrests In Depot Hearings

SCRANTON, Pa., Jan. 3 (AP)—Warrants were issued today for the arrest of 11 persons indicted in an investigation of the huge Tobyhanna Army Signal Corps Depot. But a warrant for the arrest of Rep. Green (D-Pa.) was withheld by U.S. Atty. J. Julius Levy. Levy said that until he had cleared up an interpretation of law, Green would not be served. In question, said Levy, is whether Green stands charged with a felony. A congressman cannot be arrested when Congress is in session and he is in attendance, unless it be for treason, a felony or breach of the peace. He also may not be arrested while en route to or from Congress.

Interpretation

Levy said he is trying to interpret laws passed at different times that define felony.

Helicopters Rescue Eight On Mountain

CHAMONIX, France, Jan. 3 (AP)—Daring helicopter pilots snatched eight men off the frigid face of Mt. Blanc today. But two young Alpinists that the eight had tried to save were left for dead in the wreckage of a rescue helicopter on Europe's highest mountain.

The grieving parents of the two men declined a final offer by a noted Swiss army pilot to make one more rescue attempt. The flier, Hermann Geiger, proposed that three light ski planes be landed on the mountainside to whisk the two men away.

But under conditions of swirling snow and subzero temperatures the parents considered—and said no.

Thus closed one of history's most drama-filled mountain rescue efforts—a 10-day trial of men and machines against biting cold and lashing snowstorms high on 15,781-foot Mt. Blanc.

Opposition

Senate Republican Leader Knowland of California came out against the proposed method of changing the rules, although not necessarily against putting a checkmate on filibusters.

Anderson's motion, which he offered on behalf of a coalition of Northern and Western senators, was that the Senate take up for consideration the question of adopting new rules. The group's contention is that the Senate rules do not necessarily continue from one Congress to another, but may be changed at the beginning of each new Congress by simple majority vote.

But Knowland said:

"I believe not only that the Senate is a continuous body but that it has continuing rules. Any other decision would lead to a very chaotic condition in the Senate."

Highway Deaths Set New Mark

CHICAGO, Jan. 3 (AP)—Deaths in traffic accidents in the United States climbed to a new record in 1956.

The National Safety Council made the announcement today. It estimated last year's total at 40,200—231 more than the old record of 39,969 set in 1941.

The trend was upward for 19 months in a row until it was broken by a surprise drop of 12 per cent in October. Then the rise was resumed in November.

Survey

An Associated Press survey indicated the extension of Daylight Saving Time through October in many cities, providing an extra hour of daylight at a time when darkness normally increases evening rush hour hazards, was a factor in the October slump.

In the survey the number of traffic deaths in October 1956 was checked against the number in October of the last year when Daylight Saving Time ended on the last Sunday in September—either 1955 or 1954.

Astounds Doctors

Man Remains Conscious, Speaks Rationally For Three Hours After Being Cut In Half

MEXICO, Mo., Jan. 3 (AP)—A man was cut in half just below the waist today and amazed physicians by living for more than five hours, fully conscious, and able to talk rationally until anesthetic was administered for surgery.

He appeared to be in little pain and talked rationally with several persons, including his wife, his minister and physicians for three hours until the anesthetic was administered at 10:35 a.m.

"I never heard of such a thing," said Dr. J. W. Well, the attending physician at St. Elizabeth's Hospital. "Neither had any of the other doctors who came in to look at him. Most people injure in that way are dead when you see them."

John Bobbitt, 46, a resident of Marion County said Bobbitt told

Others indicted include former Congressman Herbert McGlinchey, also a Philadelphia Democrat; Joseph Roche, a Pittsburgh contractor; Frederick J. Raft, Hartford, Conn., contractor; Robert W. Brown, Merchantville, N.J., contractor; John P. Gilroy, Scranton businessman, and Lt. Col. Charles S. Tucker of Ft. Belvoir, Va., formerly engaged in the building of the $34,000,000 depot at Tobyhanna.

Others

Green and the others are charged with fraud in connection with the building of the depot. Green also is accused of illegally using or trying to use his post on the House Armed Services Committee to influence contracts for the depot.

The investigation will reopen next Tuesday.

Motion Made To Restrain Filibusters

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 (AP)—A motion aimed at changing the Senate's rules and placing restraint on filibusters was introduced today by Sen. Anderson (D-N.M.). The Senate agreed to a showdown vote on the issue at 6 p.m. tomorrow.

Two developments accompanied Anderson's move to clear the way for a civil rights program—legislation which filibustering Southern senators have talked to death in the past.

Senate Democratic Leader Johnson of Texas promptly offered a motion to table Anderson's proposal. A similar parliamentary maneuver four years ago succeeded in killing Anderson's 1953 attempt to change the rules. The vote at that time was 70-21.

Opposition

Senate Republican Leader Knowland of California came out against the proposed method of changing the rules, although not necessarily against putting a checkmate on filibusters.

The administration has been pushing for quick action on the request for standby authority. The sense of urgency was underlined by the White House request for a joint session at which the President could present his arguments. Both Senate and House leaders were agreeable.

Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles already have talked with groups of senators and representatives. Dulles, for example, has described the situation in the Middle East as highly dangerous and said that Russia "may well move" to expand its influence there.

Russia

Russia has accused the United States of wanting to assume power over the area in the wake of the Israeli-Arab troubles and the British-French invasion of Egypt following Egypt's seizure of the Suez Canal.

The administration's Middle East resolution, besides asking standby authority for the President, calls for spending 400 million dollars in economic aid for the Middle East countries during the two years beginning next July 1.

There has not been much outcry against either part of the proposal. However, it remained to be seen whether it would be adopted by anything like the margins given the "fight if we must" resolution Congress adopted in 1955 in the Red China-Foreign situation.

The Formosa resolution authorized the President to use U.S. armed forces and any measures he might find necessary to safeguard the Chinese Nationalist island from Communist attack. So far, Formosa has not been invaded.

The Senate approved the Formosa resolution 85-3 and the House endorsed it 409-3.

Service Station Gutted By Fire

PHILLIPSBURG, N. J., Jan. 3 (AP)—A Rt. 22 service station owned by Elmer Rowe was destroyed by fire today.

Gordon Rowe, manager of the station, estimated damage at between $50,000 and $75,000.

ROME, Jan. 3 (AP)—Gina Lollobrigida said today she is going to have a baby in July and is hoping for a daughter. Her husband said he hopes that if the baby is a girl she will be as beautiful as her mother.

Plan For Paper Mill

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 3 (UPI)—Mexico's national development organization is completing plans for a $2 million dollar paper mill in the State of Michoacan.

East Bangor Boy Fined

RICHARD L. HILBERT, 17, of S. Broad St., East Bangor, has paid a $30 fine and costs to Justice of the Peace John C. Foelker, Stroudsburg, on a charge of leaving the scene of an accident.

Stroudsburg Police said a car driven by Hilbert caused $37.50 damage when it struck a parking sign and a street marker at Sixth and Ann Sts. early last month.

The car also sideswiped a utility pole before leaving the scene of the accident, police added.

Stroudsburg Area Board Approves Low Equipment Bids

Authority Faced With New Headache

STROUDSBURG Area School Board last night approved low bids for prescribed equipment for Arlington Heights Elementary School.

The Authority took the action with the stipulation that awarding of contracts for purchase is subject to issuance of architects' certificates.

At the same time the Authority met a financial headache which had not previously come up at meetings: The forthcoming payment of sales tax on taxable materials used by contractors in the construction of the new school.

This tax is paid by the contractors but, according to rules of contracts awarded for construction, the Authority must, in turn, reimburse them after the tax is paid.

The major problem facing the Authority now is the amount of money which may be left in the "contingent" fund to meet emergencies. According to Murrell R. Kiefer, a member of the Rinker and Kiefer architects firm which is handling the project for the Authority, an estimated $3,000 or more will be needed to pay the sales tax on such material.

Action

In last night's meeting, called for the special purpose of studying equipment bids, the Authority took the following actions and designated the companies listed here as winners of bids:

Roberts and Meek Co., Harrisburg, equipment for class rooms: kindergarden—$1,680; first grade—$1,145; second grade—$1,165; third grade—$1,180 all for Brunswick furniture which was specified by Authority in its advertisements to bidders, members said.

American Seating Co., Philadelphia, classroom equipment: fourth grade—$1,071.40; fifth grade—$550.95; sixth grade—$1,077.20 on a direct bid from the company itself. Reason for the small amount of bid for fifth grade equipment is that the school district already has usable material on hand for this grade level, Kiefer said.

Eight Fire Companies Begin Program

EIGHT REGIONAL volunteer fire companies and the Tobyhanna Signal Depot have worked out a mutual aid pact designed to speed additional men and equipment to the scene of rural fires.

The full-time fire department at the signal depot, headed by Chief James Oakley, will be the backbone of the organization.

Fire units from Daleville to Mount Pocono will also participate in the plan which can result in the dispatch of 10 or more pieces of equipment to the scene of a major blaze.

Mount Pocono, Pocono Pines, Newfoundland, Daleville, Moscow, Elmhurst, Springbrook and Coalbaugh

Township will be the participating units, in addition to the depot.

Here's how the plan will work: A community fire chief can call the depot for assistance after responding to an alarm. However, he must identify himself by code name, and indicate whether he needs a tank truck or a pumper.

Chief Oakley responds with the required piece of apparatus. At the scene, he surveys the situation and calls the depot by two-way radio for additional equipment, if it is needed.

The radio set-up eliminates the need of searching for a telephone and delays caused by "busy" rural phone circuits.

"It's amazing how fast you can put equipment on the scene of a fire with this cooperation," said Chief Oakley, a veteran leader of the Northeastern Pennsylvania Volunteer Firemen's Federation.

All member units would also lend assistance to Oakley's company, should a major fire break out at the sprawling signal depot.

One of the things hampering rural fire fighting has been a lack of communications, he stated. However, many volunteer companies, including those at Mount Pocono and Newfoundland, now have radio-equipped.

The Tri-County Association, comprising some companies from Monroe, Wayne and Lackawanna counties, has a unified radio network, he further stated. And Honesdale area companies are also working on plans to establish such a network. The latter would stretch from Newfoundland to Pleasant

Mt. Pleasant.

Half the cost of installing radio equipment will be defrayed by the Federal Civil Defense Administration. The fire companies and the county must meet the remaining expense.

But Chief Oakley emphasized that people would be sold on the idea if they could see a radio system in operation.

"It works," he assured

Line Material Presents Kit To College

AN AMERICAN Economic Foundation teaching kit, containing nine films and discussion booklets, was presented to East Stroudsburg State Teachers College by the Line Material Co. during a student assembly at the college yesterday.

The kit, "How We Live in America," was presented to the college by Gilbert L. Smrz, plant manager, who pointed out that Line Material is very interested that the students of today get a sound economic basis, since they will be the voters and workers of tomorrow.

Receiving the kit for the college was Dr. LeRoy J. Koehler, president, who noted that the motion picture series has been on the campus for several months and has been "especially useful for a teachers training institution since they give our students insight in appropriate visual aid material to be used in junior and senior high schools."

Praise

"No better material could be suggested for economics and problems of democracy courses," Dr. Koehler added, in a letter to the American Economic Foundation.

The college head further stated that the teacher discussion guides for each film are carefully prepared and promote classroom discussion.

The films are designed to carry a message without discouraging critical thinking on the part of the students," he continued. "In a democracy, it is very difficult to prepare material acceptable to all points of view and carry a message in a convincing manner.

"The 'How We Live in America' series proves the survival value and importance of continuing our democratic free enterprise system," he added.

The materials will also be available for use in area high schools.

Soviet Atomic Expert Dies

LONDON, Jan. 3 (UPI)—Avrami Pavlovich Zavenyagin, Soviet deputy premier who headed Russia's atomic energy industry, died yesterday. Moscow radio announced tonight. He was 55.

Zavenyagin was a member of the Communist party's Central Committee and a "hero of Socialist labor."

Pianist To Appear

NEW YORK, (UPI)—Daniel Barboim, 14-year-old Israeli pianist, will make his first U.S. appearance Jan. 7 as soloist with the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra under direction of Dimitri Mitropoulos. The concert at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel will be for the benefit of the American Fund for Israel Institutions.

This would leave $3,831.28 as a balance with which the Authority can handle the sales tax expenditure or other emergencies arising during the remainder of construction.

The meeting was held in the office of Williams and Williams, attorneys, solicitors for the Stroudsburg Area School Authority and Stroud Union Board. The Authority will hold its annual reorganization meeting next Thursday, Jan. 10 in the solicitors' office.

Red Leaders Head For Moscow

MOSCOW, Jan. 3 (UPI)—East Germany's Communist leaders headed for Moscow today and a meeting with Kremlin chiefs, which is likely to put the question of Poland high on the agenda. European Communists have shown worry over the Polish Reds' drift toward independent thinking.

A dozen East German leaders stopped over briefly in Warsaw en route to Moscow.

Newly Reorganized Highway Group Opposes Shortway Plan

CHAMBERSBURG, Jan. 3 (UPI)—The Pennsylvania Lincoln Highway Assn., last active in the 1930s, was reorganized tonight. It was immediately dedicated to the purpose of returning the highway, Route 30, to the interstate highway.

The reactivation, attended by businessmen from eight southern-tier counties, brought to three the separate number of groups opposed to the shortway and seeking action for roads in their own areas.

Groups have already been organized in behalf of Route 6 and Route 33. Originally, all three were part of the Established Routes Assn., which is still active.

The new officers of the association said they would seek hearings with the state Highways Department and the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads within a few weeks.

Area GOC Discusses New System

LOCAL members of the Ground Observer Corps met last night to discuss the new "Ready Alert" policy of the US Air Force as it affects the Monroe County area.

Since certain critical target areas are ringed by a rather comprehensive system of radar, mike batteries and other defensive installations, these areas are important because they spread sleeping sickness. Before they hit on the luminous paint idea, the scientists said they could observe the flies only when the flies were in the process of biting them.

Scientists Paint Flies

KAMPALA, Uganda, Jan. 3 (UPI)—A team of scientists here spends its days painting tsetse flies with luminous paint and the nights watching where they go. The nocturnal habits of tsetse flies are important because they spread sleeping sickness. Before they hit on the luminous paint idea, the scientists said they could observe the flies only when the flies were in the process of biting them.

Sally Place's Bandages To Be Removed

SURGEONS at Will's Eye Hospital in Philadelphia will take bandages from the eyes of five-year-old Sally Place tonight.

Shortly thereafter they will hold the answer to the question of whether Sally's sight can be saved.

The small Minisink Hills girl was severely injured in the right eye after Christmas when she was struck by a sharp-pointed Christmas toy. An emergency operation at the Philadelphia hospital has succeeded in saving the child's eye.

No Change

Clarence Seip, president of the Monroe County GOC Council, pointed out that the new system will not change the overall policy or system of GOC operation in Monroe County.

The personnel, the use of equipment and the work of the Ground Observer Council will all function as heretofore," he added, "but must be ready to spring into instant action when an alert is sounded."

M/Sgt. Stanley Mick of the Harrisburg filter center, explained how the new state-devised fan out system will operate and following the discussion the newly-devised fan out system for Monroe County was explained by Harold J. Cleaver, assistant post supervisor for Stroudsburg.

He then assigned individual hours for observation and announced that an all day test exercise would be held Jan. 10 from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Seip pointed out that under the new system it is imperative to add new observers to the present roster and to plan each operation carefully in advance. The need, he said, is now greater than ever for air force observers in this locality.

Present at last night's meeting were Laura Deubler, Thomas Kintner, Fannie Kintner, Edmund Granville, Thomas Vogler, John S. Albert, Walter Hoffman, Susie Adams, Jessie Strouse, Emily Seivision, Philip Cleaver, and Catherine Miller. Each was awarded silver wings by the Air Force.

Mass Production, Distribution Plus Advertising Raises Living Standards

A Minneapolis bank has come up with a striking little set of figures. A century ago, the bank reports, a household of three persons had an average annual income of about $1,100 in terms of present day dollars.

By contrast, the same family now averages $4,890—which means that it is able to buy more than four times the goods and services of its forebearers of four generations before.

This gain appears even more remarkable when evaluated in the light of inflation that has taken place in late years, and has depreciated the dollar by close to half. It is a testimonial to this country's epochal achievement in increasing the productive power of the people.

Charity Rackets Bilk American People Of 150 Million Dollars During Year

Americans are big-hearted—and as a result they are sometimes imposed upon by charity racketeers.

It is during this season, when our generous impulses make us easy marks for "fake" causes, that questionable promoters pitch their strongest appeal.

One of them got as far as Gov. Averell Harriman of New York recently. He enlisted him as an honorary sponsor of a "charity" ball.

Fortunately, Mr. Harriman did some quiet checking of his own. He discovered the promoter was getting 60 per cent of gross receipts plus all his expenses. The governor's name came off the sponsorship list in a hurry.

But this experience illustrates why it is important for ordinary citizens distributing charity to do so through well identified agencies.

It has been estimated that Americans backed "fake" charities to the tune of 150 million dollars during 1956.

George Sokolsky Says...

Communist Party Remains Threat In U. S. Despite Loss Of Members, Internecine War

The American Communist Party is having an unpleasant time trying to adjust itself to the various new lines which have been developing in the Communist Party. The party has shrunk: Numerically, it is only a splinter of what it was in the 1930's.

The admission by Khrushchev that Stalin had been anti-Semitic shocked the membership of the party, but when Khrushchev established himself as an anti-Semite, it damaged the party in the large cities of the United States where its members have made such a sharp point of racism.

The shrinking of the American Communist Party has produced an internecine war between the Titoists and the Stalinists, reflecting the quarrels within the Russian Presidium. It is believed that as a result of this strife, Eugene Dennis will soon cease to be the head of that party and Steve Nelson, a Yugoslav, and in many respects one of the most dangerous men in the party, may succeed to Dennis' position.

Those who are following the Titoist line are really returning to the ideas of Earl Browder when he changed the name of the Communist Party to the Communist Political Association and adopted as heroic personalities characters out of American history. For all of this, Browder was kicked out of the Communist Party on May 24, 1945 on orders of Stalin, and has remained outside the party ever since.

Browder was denounced by the entire leadership of the American Communist Party at the time of his expulsion, but his ideas apparently go marching on. In fact, it is Earl Browder who is the real father of what has come to be called Titoism, but there is no indication that he will be invited back into the party or that if invited to return, he will.

William Z. Foster, currently chairman of the American Communist Party, is apparently displeased with all the current shenanigans. He remains an outright and uncompromising Stalinist which, in essence, means that he is opposed to nationalistic Communism and disregard of Soviet Russia as the homeland of all Communists. In the course of this denunciation, he said:

"Some comrades, while repudiating Browder's crassest forms of bourgeois reformism and his ultimate renegacy from Communism, would resurrect what was good in his system. They look back nostalgically to the late 1930's when the Party was making substantial progress, overlooking the vastly more favorable situation then existing, when the Party was going along freely in harmony with the general mood of the working class and under a not hostile government, in the fight against Hitlerism and for the trade union organization of the basic industries; in contrast to the harsh persecutions suffered by the Party during the cold war years and its considerable conflict with the general mood of the working class regarding the origin of the war threat."

In this analysis, Foster is undoubtedly correct but what is important to those Americans who regard themselves as anti-socialists is that they are not in the party organization but in those who still accept Marxism-Leninism as a creed; in those who now reject Stalinism because Stalin foisted them, but who do not reject Karl Marx. They are attempting to restore their position of influence by "Americanizing" the Communist credo—an unacceptable dichotomy.

U. S.—Let me get this straight: You're the Soviet dictator of a satellite state crushed and persecuted by Russia. You're opposed to all that the Free World Stands for, but you would like it to FINNACE YU!!!

Kadar—As is well known by all peace-loving nations, you are taking a very narrow view when you put it so honestly.

U. S.—What other view would I take?

Kadar—You should realize my position. You have always been very liberal with your money and I wouldn't wish to offend you by not asking for some.

U. S.—Have you heard from Moscow on this?

Kadar—Moscow takes the broad position that dough is dough wherever you find it and that finding it is always a good try.

U. S.—Some of these millions would go into super tanks, bomber planes, machine guns, secret police operations and other things to crush all idea of independence in Hungary, would they not?

Kadar—There you go talking like a filthy capitalist and a war-monger!

We gave green stamps with it.

We fancied a dialogue between Kadar and Uncle Sam on the matter:

U. S.—Have my ears deceived me or do you really seek a loan from the World Bank?

Kadar—I have not been feeling too well lately and I figured that nothing would improve my condition so much as money.

U. S.—And you're not particular whose money?

Kadar—Not at all. We Communists are very liberal in our financial thinking.

Pipe Smokers Blend Aromatic Philosophy

Tobacconist Michael Timothy, whose specialty is blending pipe tobacco to individual tastes of his clients, is a friendly fellow. His features reflect more than good will toward man; his eyes have an anticipatory twinkle of assurance that customers are about to say something interesting.

The last man to have anything against cigar and cigarette smokers, still Mr. Timothy cannot conceal his conviction that men who smoke pipes are invariably reflective, reasonable, often brilliant and always gentlemen.

"And until a man has found his own blend of tobaccos," adds Timothy, "he doesn't know what true pleasure a pipe can give. Men may change wives, jobs, politics, friends—but once they find the right blend of pipe mixture they stay with it the rest of their lives."

With the same detached patience of a graduate school dean viewing callow freshmen, most pipe devotees look with tolerance and sympathy upon those who have yet to discover the ultimate in smoking. Denunciations of their art are met with amused half-smiles. Employers have occasionally declared they would have no pipe-smokers around—wasting hoursBring re-firing, loading, tamping, tapping, puffing and firing the briar all over again.

Ha! Smoking a pipe is hard work, requiring diligence and concentration. Is it not reasonable that any man who likes hard work of one kind might apply the same degree of effort on whatever the boss thinks important? Of course.

Pipes require tender loving care—like children and dogs. And true lovers of such creatures like 'em in large numbers. A chap with only a couple of pipes is but an associate member of the great fraternity of briar brethren. Some of these gentlemen are content with one pipe for each day of the week; a few reach for "contemplative mood" pipes or "10th of the month" pipes or "let us be gay" pipes. Some number them for days of the month, never deviating so wildly as to smoke on the 18th the pipe designated for the 20th.

Real pipe men may fancy Chinese water pipes, long stemmed clay "church warden" or carved ivories lined in meerschaum. But the blend of tobacco—ah, sweet aromatic bliss. Ranking with old school tie, family escutcheon and mamma's apple pie, tobacco mudly mixed to man's personal taste is one of life's unvarying verities. Based in Kentucky, North Carolina's leaves, carefully augmented with Virginia and North Carolina's leaves, carefully weighed amounts of Perique, Latakia, Yendje and Havanas, sweetened with Irish amaretto and one more portion of Maryland base—and what have you.

A smoker worth having that's what. You may also have a wardrobe full of holes burned (slightly, you know) by falling embers, you may have a wife who threatens to put you down cellar if the blankets pipe HAS to be smoked. But being a patient, brilliant, philosophical gentleman—what's the difference? A woman is only a woman, but a good cigar is a smoke!" How's that again, Mr. Kipling? It was pipes we were talking about!

County Well Represented In State

MONROE COUNTY is well represented in the State organization of the March of Dimes. Mrs. Olaf Pedersen, 612 Bryant St., Stroudsburg, is the Eastern Pennsylvania Women's Adviser in the March of Dimes. Mrs. Pedersen, who has been active in the local chapter for many years, is also well known in the national organization.

Current Issue

In the current issue of the Pennsylvania March of Dimes Bulletin, local campaign director Richard R. Fredenberg gets "top billing" among the chairmen listed.

A former Army non-com overzealously protects his roommate, a sensitive youth, from some tough-minded upperclassmen and thereby learns that the plebe system can bring out the best in the most timid cadets in "The Hard Task" on "West Point" at 8 p. m. on ch. 2 and 10. The timid cadet himself learns a lesson in self-confidence when he challenges a classmate who oversteps his rights in "riding" the plebe . . . Also at 8 p. m. on ch. 6 and 7 "The Adventures of Jim Bowie" presents "A Horse for Old Hickory," starring Scott Forbes as the celebrated frontiersman and Indian fighter, who goes into competition with Sam Houston in bidding for a race horse for President Jackson.

William Prince, Maureen O'Sullivan and Rex Ingram play leading roles in "The Man Who Walked on Water," true drama of a Lutheran missionary in West Africa, on "Crossroads" at 8:30 p. m. on ch. 6 and 7. The pastor creates a hatred from West African tribesmen by showing a picture of ice skaters in a colder region of the world where, he explains, the inhabitants "walk" on water during the winter. The Africans assume he is telling a falsehood and seek vengeance through their watch doctor.

At 9:30 p. m. on ch. 3 and 4 James Dean, in a recurrance of a past show co-stars with John Kerr in the "Big Story." Reporter Rex Newman of the Joplin (Mo.) Globe-News-Herald joins the police in tracking down the people who robbed and murdered an elderly shopkeeper, and in addition to the criminals, Newman gets a spectacular story for his paper . . . At the same time on ch. 2 and 10 exercise boy Mickey Rooney, who portrays a former great jockey who was thrown and crippled several years ago, is the only one to have faith in a two-year-old filly, "Lady" which he buys and races himself in the big handicap at Santa Anita.

Edward R. Murrow and "Person to Person" will visit with Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz in his Berkley, Calif., home and then with singer Frankie Laine at his home in Beverly Hills, Calif., at 10:30 p. m. on ch. 2 and 10. An interesting sidelight in the career of Admiral Nimitz is that while attending Anolis, he discovered a tendency to get seasick on his maiden cruise. As for Frankie Laine, he never had a singing lesson in his life.

Slim And Easy Is Keynote For New Spring Suits

By Dorothy Roe
Associated Press Women's Editor

Slim and Easy, ladylike but not demure, borrowing from the past and looking toward the future are American spring fashions of 1957.

The big news of the season is in new suit treatments, new skirts, new jackets, a new feeling of relaxed ease in clothes for all occasions. Short jackets are the rule for spring suits, but they take many forms, ranging from the brief bolero to the cape jacket. The double-breasted jacket that is cropped short, semi-fitted, with collar set away from the neck and sleeves cut all in one with the jacket is an important silhouette, usually shown with a slim and slightly peg-topped skirt. The barrel jacket with gathered back, stopping just at the hipbone, looks like another favorite. Cape jackets are present in many versions, and the softly bloused belted jacket also is new.

Skirts are uniformly slim, some with back interest, some with front panels, many with peplum lines, a few with hobble hemlines. Skirt lengths remain about the same as last fall, or slightly longer.

Dresses desert the skin-tight sheath look and have an easier fit, more softness, nothing nipped in or strained. The overall effect is one of simple, relaxed lines, with little exaggeration, no distortion of the natural lines of the body and soft, light, smoothly draped fabrics.

Capes are important in costumes as well as suits, and come in all lengths, from brief shoulder varieties to full-length wraps, often teamed with printed silk dresses.

Waistlines are still raised, but the high effect is achieved in new ways, such as wide cummerbunds, cropped jackets and inset belts. The classic Empire line gives way to new treatments suggesting a short-waisted look.

Al Robins

Famed Performer To Appear In 'Night Of Stars' Show

AL ROBINS, "The Banana Man," famous vaudevillian and clown of two continents, will be one of the featured stars of the "Nite of Stars" Variety Show. The show, to be sponsored by Temple Israel for the benefit of its Building Fund, will be held at Stroudsburg High School on Feb. 6.

Robins, whose delightful and side-splitting buffoonery has endeared him to theater and TV audiences everywhere and has made him a show stealer par excellence, is one of the truly great masters of the art of pantomime. No less a critic than Brooks Atkinson of the New York Times has said of him: "For genuine clowning this column has never seen the equal of Al Robins, whose mimicry is terrific."

Clown

"The Banana Man" first comes on the stage in a crazy clown costume, pushing a trunk on wheels, singing a shrill, staccato melody. Then suddenly he begins to produce from his pockets whole bunches of bananas, pineapples, watermelons, banjos and just about anything one can think of, singing all the while.

He changes wardrobes and character several times on stage, before the eyes of the audience, till three trunks with material he takes out of his clothes, couples the trunks into a train and drives the whole contraption off the stage as the engineer of a small locomotive attached to the trunks.

Robins has appeared in just about every large theater and night club from the Thunderbird Hotel in Las Vegas to the Casino Theater in London. He has made many TV appearances with Milton Berle, Ken Murray and Sid Caesar, just to mention a few.

In addition to Robins, the Nite of Stars will feature many other top flight acts to be announced in the next few weeks. Those wishing to purchase tickets can do so by contacting any merchant in either Stroudsburg or East Stroudsburg.

Stroud Union High School Senior Finalist In National Merit Scholarship Competition

ROBERT HAIGH, a Stroud Union High School senior, has been named as finalist in the National Merit Scholarship competition.

According to Alfred W. Munson, school principal, Haigh is among the 7,500 highest scorers in the nationwide college aptitude examination given to 162,000 seniors in 12,500 high schools across the nation last Oct. 24.

Haigh is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Haigh. His father is owner-operator of R. J. Groner Plumbing Contracting firm at 18 S. Eighth St., Stroudsburg.

The 17-year-old senior is basically interested in chemistry as a major field of study. Although Haigh has not definitely chosen the college he wishes to attend he is now deliberating between Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Lehigh University.

At the local high school he has been active in the band, chorus, the yearbook staff, is president of the mathematics club, treasurer of the Hi-Y organization at the school, the Kiwanis Key Club, Junior Historians and the National Honor

Robert P. Haigh

Society. He will be one of five students to represent the local high school in district chorus competition.

On Jan. 12, Haigh and the other finalists will compete for top positions by taking the three-hour College Board examinations, plus intensive screening of their leadership and extra-curricular records by a selection board.

At stake in the competition are more than 700 four-year college scholarships, many of them sponsored by business and industrial corporations. Included are 100 Sears-Roebuck Foundation Merit Scholarships and nationwide programs sponsored by such companies as Pittsburgh Plate Glass, F.W. Woolworth, Standard Oil of Indiana, International Nickel and others.

Merit Scholarship programs were started two years ago with basic grants of $20,500,000 from Ford Foundation and the Carnegie Corporation of New York.

Finally Believed His Eyes and Ears!

He has heard and read a great many wonderful things about this new 1957 Cadillac since it made its first appearance a few brief weeks ago——about its magnificent new luxury, for instance . . . its brilliant new power and responsiveness . . . its marvelous new handling ease . . . and its extraordinary new smoothness of ride.

And so, quite frankly, he began to wonder if it weren't all too good to be true. Could any motor car be as wonderful as this latest "car of cars" was reputed to be?

Well, he has decided to put his eyes and his ears to the test today. And the verdict is unmistakable!

It's a joy just to lean back into those deep, soft cushions and look out over that graceful hood into the beckoning highway.

And what a revelation the car is to drive!

A curve in the road ahead? He simply follows it with the arc of his hands and the car responds with perfect obedience.

A hill in the offing? He just nudges the accelerator and the car sweeps up and over as effortlessly as if it were traveling the level road.

A stop light coming up? He presses his toe—ever so gently—on the broad braking pedal and comes to the smoothest, surest stop imaginable.

Yes, it's true what they say about Cadillac. This is far and away the finest motor car ever to travel the world's highways.

How about you? Have you heard the wonderful things they're saying about this newest "car of cars"?

Well, the proof is in the driving—and the facts about Cadillac have never been more convincing.

Why not make it today?

THE ATLANTIC Coast Football Conference is one of the better collegiate circuits in the country. In fact it would be safe to say that the ACC ranks only a notch or two behind the Big Ten.

And when you get reports from Dixieland lauding the efforts of so-and-so, or this team or that one, you can bet it is closer to the truth than tub-thumpers evaluate.

With this pat in the back for our southern brethren (on this point anyway) we are glad to announce that Nick Patella, one of the Jack Kist's former protégés at East Stroudsburg High, was named first string guard on the All-State Fresh eleven of North Carolina.

Patella, a yearling at Wake Forest, was pegged as a "Terrific newcomer for the Deacons" by Gene Warren, sports editor of the Greensboro, N. C., Daily News.

Warren also said, "Patella kicks extra points like an expert."

So this means the ex-Cavalier will do double-duty for Coach Paul Aman when the Deacons go the wars against ACC foes next fall.

In another article Warren wrote, "Patella is one of the best extra point kickers anywhere, his boots beat Duke and North Carolina."

Warren continued, in quoting Elmer Barbour, Wake Forest fresh mentor, "As far as Patella, you'll find he's a weight lifter who knows how to exploit his power. I look for him to be of tremendous help to the varsity this year."

Patella, a 205-pounder, along with another Cavalier who has done well in Dixieland—Bob (Red) Kupiszewski—are set to move the Deacons up the ladder in the ACC.

Incidentally, another boy who was picked on the Carolina All-State was Jim Kleinfelter, of Lebanon, Pa. We remembered Kleinfelter well two years ago, tabbing the boy then "the best back we had seen during the 1955 scholastic season." He also is a Wake Forest comer.

Again incidentally, there were 10 Pennsylvania schoolboys on the Deacon Fresh, including former Hellertown High star Ned Wagner. All told there were 15 northeners on the southern eleven.

BOWLING TIDBITS—Frank the Barber team of the Commercial "B" League had themselves quite a game the other night at Harmon's Recreation. The "shave and a haircut" quintet posted a 1021 singleton as Steve Badek connected for a 206; Pete Budicker, 180; Hank Baustain, 221; Sam Strunk, 226; and Dr. Gail Fegley, 179.

Other Commercial "B" highlights revealed Tom Sommers registering a 258 and a series of 625, and Joe Hodgson smashing the maples for a herculean 278 and a three-game set of 610.

Willard Miller, of the Square Bar team of the Industrial loop, garnered high honors in the circuit last week with a 573. This match was good enough to give him the lead in the average race with a 191 norm.

Don Freeman, of East Stroudsburg Beverage, had high single, with a 232, and enabled him to notch a 520. This was quite a gain when you consider Don ended the first half with a 145 average.

PCC Holds Firm Penalty Rulings

Stroudsburg, Eastburg Highs' Quintets Away Today

Kupice Faces Smith 'Jinx'
In Slatington LV Inaugural

SMITH HALL, Slatington, is a fine basketball setup as far as court space, seating arrangements and over-all comfort goes, but to John Kupice, head coach of Stroudsburg High, the States' home ballroom is a jinx.

Since Kupice took over Stroudsburg High's basketball fortunes four years ago, his Mountaineer fives have failed to ring up a victory in Smith Hall.

Today at Smith Hall, Kupice and his 1956-57 Mountaineer quintet will be out to snap this string of losses (which also includes setbacks in the Slatington Invitational) when they face the Slaters in the opening game of the Lehigh Valley League season for both schools.

Kupice, in noting the Smith Hall "jinx," remarked, "It's getting downright monotonous going down there just for the ride. We'll have to do something about it."

3-2 Record

Stroudsburg, tabbed one of the three teams that could give perennial LV kings Palmerton a run for their money this year, worked through five contests in exhibitions and came out with a so-so, 3-2 record.

In a victory over Scranton Central, the Mountaineers revealed a polished ball club. However, in the Slatington Invitational loss to Jim Thorpe, the Main St. school representatives were just the opposite.

"We needed work," Kupice said referring to the Jim Thorpe upset.

Kupice sent his charges through long drills during the holidays in an attempt to iron out the miseries his five exhibited in the early outings.

Slatington, in the process of rebuilding after the letdown of the departed Maurice Schleicher and Company championship team, won only two games in six starts in the pre-league tuneups.

Tentative Lineup

Expected to start for the Mountaineers in the LV inaugural are a quartet of four six-footers-plus and a hustling 5'-8" outside man. Working the forward posts will be Doug Shook, the LV's second leading scorer last year, and Don Hickey, a tap in specialist. Bob Adelmann will open at center and then go outside with the other guard, Ron (Super) Phillips. Starting at guard but moving inside after the tipoff will be Tom Savage.

Kupice's reserve strength shows Gladson Miller, Jim Welsh and Ted Williams the chief replacements in case a change is made in the starting array, or if some of the "first five" falter during the contest.

Other Games

Other Lehigh Valley League openers on tap today are Whitehall at Palmerton; Northampton at Lehighton, and Emmaus at Catawissa.

Ken Boyer Salary Doubled By Cards

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 3 (UPI)—Ken Boyer, 25, the cat-quick third baseman of the St. Louis Cardinals who was the National League's No. 5 hitter last year, signed his 1957 contract today, reportedly receiving a whopping pay boost to almost double his previous salary.

The Cardinals' front office did not disclose the terms but it was reported Boyer signed for around $17,000. In 1955, his first in the big time, Boyer reportedly got $9,000.

State Athletic Commission Refuses To Take 'Back Seat'

HARRISBURG, Jan. 3 (UPI)—The state Athletic Commission today refused to take a "back seat" to any other Pennsylvania commission when it comes to services rendered for dollars spent.

"Our commission is composed of men who are doing a sincere job and a dedicated one where we are giving good service for dollars spent," said Commissioner Alfred Klein.

Klein commented on published reports that Sen. Watkins (R-Delaware) favored abolishing the commission if it "is going to cost the taxpayers money."

"If he (Watkins) moves to abolish the athletic commission I'd say he'd have to abolish a lot of other commissions," said Chairman James H. Crowley.

Greene-Dreher-Sterling And Milford Fives Each Will Be Seeking Eighth Straight Today

NEWFOUNDLAND — Greene-Dreher-Sterling's quintet meets an equally strong Milford High group today in outside-conference play at Milford.

Both teams are undefeated in seven starts. This will be the last pre-conference play for coach Henry Arneberg's GDS five.

On Tuesday, Jan. 8, the local high school begins its Wayne County Conference struggle when its team meets Moscow.

8:30 P.M. Start

Today's game is slated to begin at 8:30 p.m. in the Milford gym. There will be no junior varsity game.

In the seven games each team has played in exhibition, these are the high schools they have met and defeated:

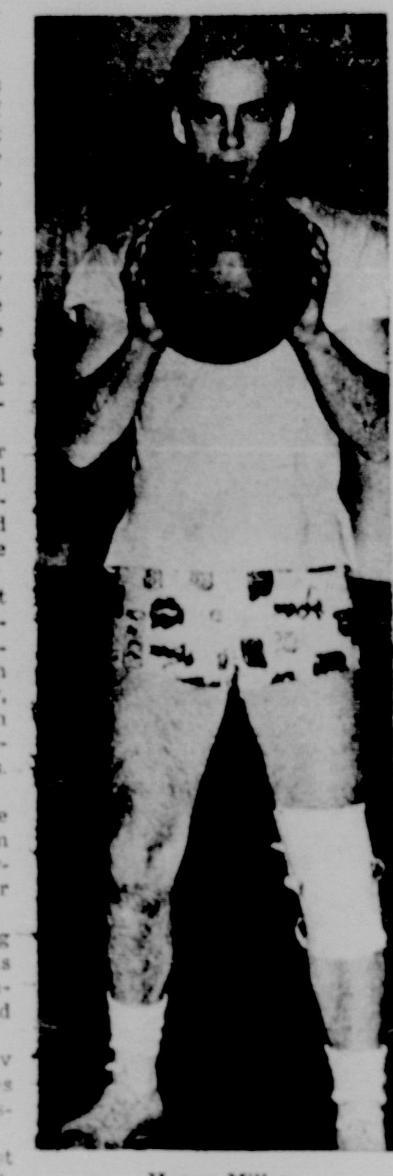

Greene-Dreher-Sterling — Polk Township, Tobyhanna Township, Barrett Township, all in Monroe County; Damascus and Pleasant Mount, both in Wayne County, and Scott Township, Lackawanna County.

Milford—Narrowsburg, N. Y.; Sussex, N. J.; Damascus, and has twice defeated Hawley and Honest, both of the Wayne County Conference.

Cavaliers Seek 2nd L-N Win Against Vet Pen Argyl Team

"IF OUR BALL-HANDLING keeps improving we'll be alright," Doug Schoonover mused after sending his East Stroudsburg High quintet through their final drill in preparation for today's Lehigh-Northampton League duel with Pen Argyl on the Green Wave's floor.

Eastburg Hopeful

Harry Miller

The Cavaliers of Schoonover, sporting a 2-3 log in the early season going and a 1-1 record in the L-N, will be taking on an all-veteran Green Wave five today in State territory.

"We've made a lot of mistakes in the early starts and most of them cost us valuable points that could have brought home victory in at least two of the three setbacks," Schoonover said.

"The boys looked good in workouts during the holidays," the new Cavalier court boss noted. "Now if we can only put into practice what we gained in workouts we should pick up momentum."

"If we are ever going to get started, now is the time," Schoonover concluded.

The Cavaliers, winners over Coplay and losers to Fountain Hill in a closer than the score indicated tilt, must make their bid now if they hope to stay in the running for the first half laurels.

Fountain Hill, the two straight season victors in the L-N, is leading the pack again with an unblemished record. However, Bethlehem Catholic, a Catholic League entry, showed the Hillers could be taken by downing Charley Dubois' protégés twice in exhibition games.

Expected to Start

Schoonover plans to start a five consisting of King Beers and Jim Kindrew at forwards; Harry Harlacher, center, and Harry Miller and Dale Metzgar at guards.

Beers, the Cavaliers leading point-getter the past two seasons and Harlacher and Miller are seniors, while Metzgar is a junior and Kindrew a sophomore.

Ready for duty also are Irv Smith, a sophomore; junior Wes Werkeheiser and senior Woody Moseller.

Pen Argyl will open the contest studded with returnees, and headed by Lee Bilheimer and Jim Monello.

The Green Wave has broken even in six games and owns a record of 1-1 in the Lehigh-Northampton.

Other L-N Tills

LOU LEE, of Bushkill, set the pins on fire at Harmon's Recreation Hall (2-0) at Bangor (1-1); Nazareth (1-1) at Coplay (0-2); Hellertown (0-2) at Wilson (1-0); Parkland (1-1) at the loop's ninth entry is idle.

Schoolboys Set To Open

HARRISBURG, Jan. 3 (UPI)—Defending Class A champions in nearly every PIAA basketball district go into action tomorrow night in a new campaign to retain their titles.

As regular league competition opens, indications are strong that at least one district champion figures to retain its title, while another appears weak on the basis of its performance last season.

Reading looked good in its first Central Penn League effort Wednesday night, defeating Harrisburg's William Penn 58-41. It's still a long road through league play to district playoffs, but Reading promises to put up a first class struggle to retain its crown.

Pittsburgh, Jan. 3 (UPI)—Outfielder Bill Virdon, who was the National League's second leading hitter in 1956 with a .319 average, today signed his 1957 contract with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Contract terms were not disclosed but it was reported Virdon received a substantial raise.

General Manager Joe L. Brown also announced the signing of Paul Minner, 33, a southpaw pitcher released by the Chicago Cubs last season.

Meanwhile, attention will be turned to western Pennsylvania Friday where defending state champion Farrell opens in Suburban Philadelphia, 43-42, to Swarthmore. The team was weakened by graduation and dropped early season games to Yeoman, a likely challenger for the Dist. 1 title, and Downingtown.

Farrell, in a holiday tourney, dumped Clester, of Dist. 1, 62-52. Chester went on to squash New Castle in a consolation game. The Steelers, despite early season nonleague losses to such competition as Altoona and Monessen, still appear the best prospect in Sect. III.

Watson Roasts Rangers Prior Video Debut

NEW YORK. Jan. 3 (P)—Coach Phil Watson roasted his New York Ranger hockey team for "indifferent" play today in the eve of their appearance in the first nationally televised ice game.

The Rangers and the Chicago Blackhawks inaugurate a new series of ten sports telecasts Saturday at 2 p.m., EST, over CBS. This is the first time National Hockey League games have been televised coast to coast and from Canada to the South.

Not All Well

But all is not well with the Rangers, in the opinion of Watson. The New York team has lost five of its last six games and is now in fourth place in the six-team league.

Dave Creighton, Dean Prentiss, and Harry Howell are not giving their best," Watson told the New York hockey writers luncheon. "They are indifferent. They have the ability but not the spirit.

"If they don't come through I will take action . . ."

The Los Angeles Club won the 1956 Pacific Coast League pennant by 16 games over Seattle. The Angels, managed by Bob Sheffing, won 107 games.

Robinson-Fullmer Rematch Appears Likely In March Pending Final Sugar Ray Verdict

NEW YORK. Jan. 3 (P)—A Gene Fullmer-Sugar Ray Robinson rematch in March appears likely today pending final decision tomorrow by the 36-year-old former champ and his retinue of managers and advisers.

Fullmer, winner of a unanimous decision in last night's Madison Square Garden fight, appeared at the offices of the International Boxing Club, ready to give Sugar Ray another chance "anytime."

As Mary Jenson, his manager, said to promoter Jim Norris, "All we're interested in is—get us the most money you can."

Norris said he would like to promote the fight in New York, if the same sort of local TV blackout could be worked out.

Decision

Robinson didn't show for a scheduled press conference.

George Gainford, his "chief adviser," said over the telephone that he wanted a rematch at the earliest date whenever Fullmer got none of the TV cash.

Going Home

"I'm going home Monday," said Gene. "And I'll be back on the same job in a week or so at $17.56 a day. It gives me something to do and I enjoy it. I've got two more years as an apprentice and then I'll get a little over $19 a day."

Asked why he planned to continue working with the prospects of a rich return from his title, Fullmer said "A guy has to have a full life. I enjoy the work and the people."

Fullmer explained that he is a Mormon elder. He said "tithes" or payment of 10 per cent of his wages to the religious order was a voluntary thing.

Issue Charges

The Robinson camp issued new charges of "illegal punching" by Fullmer and voiced bitter criticism of the way referee Ruby Goldstein handled the fight.

Fullmer denied the charges.

Brasca said he thought Robinson looked much better in training than in the ring and wondered out loud why Gainford, his chief corner man, held him back until the ninth round.

Honeymoon Follows Game

DALLAS. Tex., Jan. 3 (P)—A Syracuse University player turned his jaunt to the New Year's Day Cotton Bowl football game into a honeymoon with his college sweetheart today.

Ed Bailey, tall, blond, first-string guard and Miss Joan Anuario, were married in the new St. Thomas The Apostle Episcopal Church.

Plans

The couple originally planned for a Feb. 16 wedding, shortly after the bride is to be graduated from the Syracuse School of Nursing Feb. 2.

But in order to have a "real honeymoon and a little more time alone together," the bride explained, the couple decided on a Dallas wedding.

Miss Anuario's trip to Dallas was a wedding present from the school. The couple will return to Syracuse, N. Y., with the rest of the team Friday.

The Chicago Cubs have won 100 or more National League games during four of their 16 pennant winning campaigns. They last won 100 games in 1935 under Manager Charlie Grimm.

Business Column1,092 Requests
Mailed To Monroe County

EACH JANUARY, business concerns all over the United States receive requests from Dun and Bradstreet for their annual financial statement. This year approximately three million businesses will receive these requests with 1,092 going to Monroe County concerns some 340 are mailed to firms in this city.

The Monroe County section of the current issue of the Dun and Bradstreet reference book contains listings of 349 local businesses, comprised of manufacturers, retailers and wholesalers.

Each day the agency as a whole checks into 6,000 changes in the business world, resulting from discontinuances, new businesses and changes in financial status.

Better than 95 per cent of all commercial transactions in the United States are made on credit terms with the buyer and seller brought together by means of credit information.

When the owner of a business or his accountant returns his financial statement to Dun and Bradstreet, he has taken the first step in establishing his responsibility as a seeker of credit. The statement becomes part of a credit report on his business. On the basis of the information in the report, a rating is assigned and the business is listed in the Dun and Bradstreet Reference Book.

Margie McNally was recently named "Miss Rheingold," according to an announcement by Liebmann Breweries, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Margie, a native of Brooklyn, is 21 years old and far outdistanced the other five entries. Results of the voting were second only to the recent presidential election.

Margie now lives in Queens with her mother, a teen-age sister and two brothers. "Miss Rheingold" attended St. Theresa's Grammar School and Prospect Heights High School, both in Brooklyn. She has also studied at the John Robert Powers model agency. Her hobbies are swimming, reading plays and attending as many "first nights" as possible. She designs and makes her own clothes.

For winning the annual "Miss Rheingold" election Margie will receive a contract from Liebmann Breweries worth $50,000. Trips to California and Europe, wardrobe and traveling expenses will be included in the contract.

The Rheingold Distributing Co. in Monroe and Pike Counties is Eshler Distributing Co., Tannersville.
